Sound First Call Monday For Township Elections

Town Clerk Harold Cooper, of Frankfort Township, and Town Clerk Frank Kluge, of New Lenox, announced this week that next Monday, Dec. 23, is the first day for filing nomination papers for the township election April 1. Last day for filing will be Jan. 27. The Republicans nominate at a caucus. The caucus date is Jan. 23.

Frankfort and New Lenox townships regarded as Republican territory in political circles so it is considered advantageous for Republican candidates to run there under the party label. By the same token, politicians seldom run as such in local elections, finding it better to appear under other labels.

Four years ago in Frankfort Township the Democrats fielded the "People's" ticket and elected August Santoro, village attorney of Frankfort, as assessor.

This year in Frankfort Township eight officials are to be elected, supervisor, assistant supervisor, town clerk, assessor, collector, and three auditors.

The present office holders are George Tate, supervisor; James Tilsy, assistant supervisor; Cooper, town clerk; Santoro, assessor; Burnett Schram, collector, and Rudolph Urbano, August Werner and Robert Nauman, auditors.

Tilsy, a farmer who resides east of Mokena, was appointed assistant supervisor to replace Berle Needham, of Mokena, who took office as county auditor on Dec. 2.

Walter Yunker, highway commissioner of Frankfort Township, was elected two years ago, so his term does not expire until 1971.

The officials to be elected are not the same in every township. In New Lenox, for instance, Supervisor John E. Francis and Assistant Supervisor John Oster, were elected two years ago, as was Highway Commissioner Otto Bormet.

In the 1969 town election New Lenox voters will choose a town clerk, a collector, and assessor and three auditors.

Indications were that Kluge, the town clerk; Alfred Emiley, town collector and Frank Clark, assessor, and Ronald Vondrasek, Kenneth Allen and William Loucks, auditors, will seek re-election and that they will get the nominations on the Republican ticket.

The annual town meetings, at which budgets are approved and other business transacted, are held the same day as the election, April 1.

He was driving alone in his car when the vehicle went out of control and crashed off the road.

Payne, whose present address was Rt. 3, Wilmington, was taken to Silver Cross Hospital and was pronounced dead on arrival. Besides his parents he is survived by his wife, Phyllis.

Payne was the 80th automobile fatality in Will County this year.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

To us, funeral services conducted by fraternal orders are always impressive. The rituals are beautiful and full of meaning.

We have had the high privilege of cooperating with many such organizations, and from experience we have learned their requirements.

Arrangements for group attendance are always carefully planned in advance to assure a nicely coordinated service.

Marley Change Date For Referendum

Mrs. Virginia Sass
Telephone 485-6424

The Homer School board held a special meeting on Dec. 9 to change the 21 cent educational tax rate referendum from Jan. 18 to Saturday, Dec. 21. The polling place will be Homer School with the poll open from 12 noon to 7 p.m. The present educational tax rate is 90 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The 21 cent increase would bring it to $1.11 on all taxable property within the school district.

The Homer board changed its date to honor a recent request from the county superintendent of schools, that possible rate changes be completed prior to Dec. 31.

Recent state visitors noted that the educational rate for District 33-C had not been changed since the school was consolidated in 1957. They emphasized that the public should be urged to provide an educational rate increase immediately to avoid increased deficit spending.

Since 1957, teacher's salaries, administration, and maintenance costs have risen sharply. Yet the same educational tax rate exists today. The school is faced with deficit spending which will cost the taxpayer more than the increased tax rate.

All citizens of the district are urged to call or visit the school office to obtain information concerning the need for the proposed increase.

The traditional program will be held in the Marley Community Church on Christmas Eve, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. A playlet, "The Most Precious Gift" will be presented by the children of the Sunday School. A one act play, "Ye Who Sit By The Fire" will be presented by the Junior and Senior High Fellowships. Included in the program will also be the singing of Christmas songs and a visit from Santa Claus.

The annual Christmas dinner party of the Marley Woman's Club was held at Jardine's Restaurant in Tinley Park on Dec. 12. Dinner was served at noon. The Christmas program, gift exchange and games were conducted by Mrs. Harry Scheller, Mrs. T. Morawski and Mrs. Charles Elliott. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Morawski on Jan. 9.

Mrs. Herb Crabb attended a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Howard Schroeder in Hinsdale on Dec. 11.

Guests on Dec. 14 in the home of Mrs. Charles Elliott were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rysdon of Park Forest and Mrs. Kenneth Lewis of Chicago.

The Rev. John Burger has chosen "The Sadness of Christmas" as his sermon topic during morning worship at 10:30 A.M. in the Marley Community Church on Dec. 22. Special music will include "Wind Through The Olive Trees" by the women's choir; "O, Holy Night", vocal solo by Verda Jo Sass and an organ and piano duet, "The Hallelujah Chorus" by Janet and David Crabb.

Most critical phase of mission will be after lunar orbit when rocket must ignite for return to Earth.

Illustration by World Book Science Service shows Apollo 8 flight plan.

Apollo 8.. It'll Be A Nervous Adventure

By Walter E. Bixby
Editorial Director

Man's first attempt to orbit the moon will be a nervous adventure, at least for those of us Earth bound.

It begins Saturday at 6:51 a.m. with the launch of Apollo 8 from the Cape Kennedy (Fla.) moonport. If all goes well, splashdown will be next Friday (Dec. 27) at 9:51 a.m. in the Pacific Ocean south of Hawaii.

For astronauts Frank Borman, 40, James Lovell Jr., 40, both space veterans, and rookie William Anders, 35, it means a late Christmas. They will celebrate the holidays with their families in Houston after the mission, an indication of their supreme confidence in the worthiness of their spaceship.

The flight plan is ambitious and packed with more moments when performance of machinery is vital to success, and the life of its crew, than any other mission.

It calls for a 238,857-mile (mean measurement) journey into lunar orbit on Christmas Eve, then 20 hours of orbit about 70 miles above the Moon's surface before beginning the trip homeward on Christmas morning.

Six times during the mission live pictures will be beamed from outer space and released for television viewing during the holidays. The pictures hopefully will include views of the receding Earth and of the Moon's surface.

Critical phases of the mission will be (1) Saturn V's powered flight through the Earth's atmosphere, (2) firing of the third-stage J-2 engine for translunar injection, (3) the decision whether to enter lunar orbit, and (4) restoring from their single engine the velocity required to exit orbit and return to Earth.

Over-acceleration or failure of the J-2 engine in the crucial stages would leave the astronauts helplessly sentenced to life imprisonment.

If the crew should elect not to enter lunar orbit, the spaceship would remain on free trajectory for return to Earth. Once committed to orbit however, they'll need engine thrust to break free of the Moon's gravitation.

Homeward bound, Apollo 8 will be shooting for a narrow 40-mile corridor into the Earth's atmosphere, a delicate navigational feat. If impossible weather plagues the primary recovery zone, a skip maneuver can be performed that will carry the spaceship another 800 miles down range.

Recovery may be more of a problem than on other missions, too, since forces will be positioned in a line rather than zoned as in previous instances.

Apollo 8 is the first manned flight of the Saturn V, a rocket experts could not believe would fly when they first viewed drawings of it seven years ago, and only the third flight of the vehicle.

The first test, on Nov. 7, 1967, was perfect; the second, on April 4, 1968, encountered heavy vibration in the first stage and engines balked in both the second and third stages.

But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is confident these malfunctions have been corrected.

The spaceship is wondrous. It stands 363-feet tall and has 11 engines in three stages which develop more than 8.7-million pounds of thrust.

Five engines in the first stage produce 160-million horsepower, enough to lift six-million pounds from the launch pad. Five engines in the second stage kick out one-million pounds of thrust.

The third stage is a single, restartable engine with 200,000 pounds of thrust. It is the lifeline of the mission, being responsible for the 17,000 miles-an-hour Earth-orbit speed and the 25,000 m.p.h. velocity necessary for lunar trajectory and for escaping the Moon's gravitation.

Saturn V will not be pressed to its load capacity this time since Apollo 8 will not carry the Lunar Module which on the lunar landing will ferry two astronauts between the orbiting spaceship and the Moon's surface.

The next flight, Apollo 9, will check out the module, with practice rendezvous and docking maneuvers in space as its primary mission.

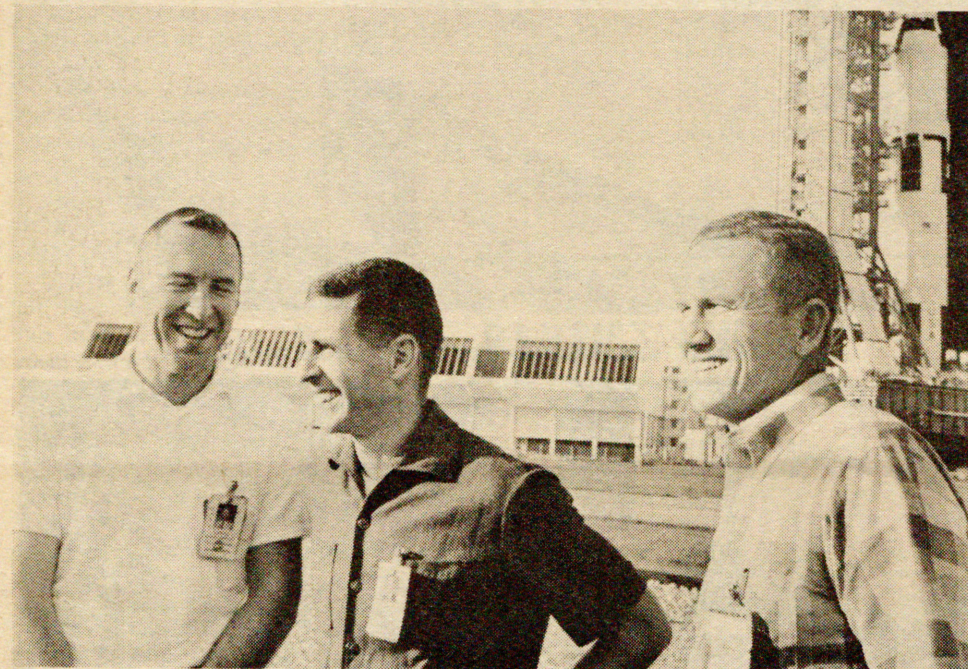

If all goes well over the holidays, that flight could be launched in March, 1969.

"Y" Plans Basketball Tourney

Bob De Young, boys' director of the Joliet YMCA, announced plans to hold the "Y's" annual open basketball tournament during the Christmas holidays.

De Young states that there will be two divisions, junior high (7th and 8th grades) and high school (9th thru 12th grades). Last year's tournament had twenty teams participating. Teams can consist of any seven boys who are not on junior high or high school teams. Entry blanks are available at the public and parochial schools in the area and also at the Joliet YMCA. Entry fee is $5 per team and the deadline for entry is Saturday, Dec. 21. Tournament will be single elimination. Trophies will be awarded to first place teams, medals to the second place teams, and ribbons for third place.

Newton Resigns, Ryder New Mokena Police Chief

Mokena has a new chief of police, Wayne Ryder, operator of the Sinclair service station, Wolf and Front St. He succeeds Roy Newton, who resigned.

According to Trustee Roy Richardson, chairman of the police committee of the village board, the committee decided to accept Newton's resignation on Dec. 10, a week after it had been submitted to the board.

Ryder, who has been doing part-time police work at Mokena since 1962, was appointed as chief by Mayor Eric Book and the committee, subject to approval by the board this week. It was expected the board would concur. Ryder, however, as are all police officers hired by Mokena, will have a six-month probationary period to serve as chief.

Newton, who has served as chief for five years and as a part-time police officer before that for several years, was stricken by a sudden illness last March that necessitated major surgery and he was hospitalized for several months.

He returned to duty last September but was limited as to hours--four a day--by his physician. In late October the doctor gave him permission to work an eight-hour day, Newton said, but would not approve a work schedule of eight hours duty and subject to call 24 hours, on a five-day basis. Prior to his illness Newton worked such a schedule.

The village board, Trustee Richardson said, wanted Newton to resume his former schedule and also attend the police training programs, set up by the state, at the expense of the village and the state.

Newton said he and the village board were apart on the work schedule, and he elected to follow his doctor's advise--so he resigned.

Ryder will work the schedule outlined by the village board. He also will attend a police school. These schools are operated by the state with the state paying half the cost and the municipalities and counties making use of the facilities, the other half.

Attends Seminar

William G. Chase, member of the department of education and psychology at Joliet Junior College District 525, attended the ninth annual seminar for teachers of undergraduate psychology courses this month at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

The seminar was for instructors of undergraduate psychology in northern Illinois' colleges and universities.

Approximately 50 psychologists were present. The guest speaker, Jeremy Wilson of Northwestern University where he has been planning coordinator since 1964, spoke on "A Community of Scholars," a report of the faculty planning committee on the undergraduate curriculum at Northwestern.

Special Work In Industrial Arts

The Industrial Arts Department at Lincoln-Way High School has 100% instructor participation in the independent study program.

The independent study program, which was originally designed for the college bound student, is just what was needed, it was pointed out. The Industrial Arts Department has one student in the independent study program for each instructor. It is the ideal program for the better and more ambitious student for self-improvement.

What does a student in Industrial Arts do in independent study? In independent study a student is given leeway to do more or less what he wants to do at his own pace. The projects must meet the approval of the instructor. In order to become a part of the independent study program, the student must first have the approval of the counselor, department head, individual instructor and finally, the independent study board.

The Industrial Arts Department at Lincoln-Way has many facilities for advanced work in most areas. There are four students in the program this semester, it was said, and that number will increase in the next.

In auto is Rex Wilson under the watchful eye of Melvin Oard. Rex is busily overhauling a Ford 289. This engine was donated by Ford Motor Company. Rex completely dismantled the engine. He examined all the parts for wear. He then reassembled the engine making sure he torqued the parts correctly. After he reassembled the engine, he made adjustments so the engine was tuned properly. Rex also built a running stand. After all is completed the engine will be used in the shop as a test engine.

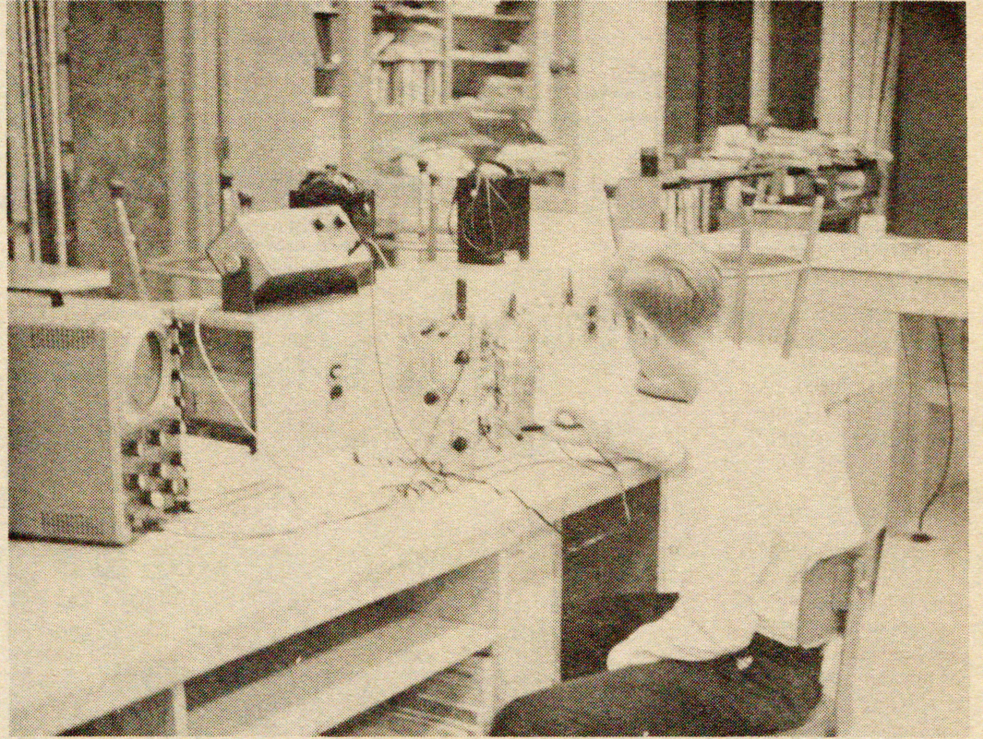

Ken Harbit is busy studying code and building equipment under the direction of Raymond Page. Ken has a goal of obtaining a ham radio operator license. He has completed the building of a voltmeter, radio frequency generator, and audio frequency generator. He is in the process of completing a receiver. While he is waiting for parts to arrive, he studies his code. Ken has over half of the code down pat.

Bill Goetschel is making chips in the metals shop with the approval of Kenneth Clough. Bill's main objective is to make a machinist vise. He starts out with a raw casting and bar stock. The casting has different parts that are milled, drilled and tapped. On the lathe Bill turns down the lead screw and T handle. All of these operations include precision layout, measuring and machining. He must make different fixtures and setups on his own.

George Kuehn is supervising Rich Pokorny, who is making wood shavings. Rich is learning the basics of cabinet and furniture construction. He is in the process of layout, cutting, assembling and finishing a storage cabinet for his parent's home. He is also planning to construct furniture for his parents' home. In this type of work, the student is basically on his own.

Apply Now For College Grants

With Christmas just around the corner it is perhaps appropriate that announcement is made of the Grant assistance program for college study in 1969-70 at more than 125 Illinois colleges and universities.

Applications can now be made for grants of up to $1,200 by those who need financial aid to attend college. The Christmas idea comes in from the fact that such grants are presents--the money obtained in this fashion does not have to be paid back.

Grant applications can be obtained from the guidance directors: J.R. Lashmet is at Lincoln-Way; James Adcock, at Sandburg, and Miss Pauline Butler, at Stagg. Deadline for submitting applications is Feb. 1, 1969.

The Grant Program, administered by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, provides aid on a non-competitive basis--that is, applicants are not required to take tests or have a minimum class rank. They are required to be citizens, however, and resident of Illinois. They qualify for Grants based on their financial need at the Illinois college, public or private, of their choice. Financial need is determined thru a standard financial need analysis procedure which is applied to the information submitted by the applicant of his parents.

Grants are available for full - time, undergraduate study in amounts up to $1,200. The Grant, however, may be used only for tuition and mandatory fees. Therefore, the Grant cannot be greater than tuition and fees.

Conservation

Resource conservation, everyone's business including urban and rural 4-H'ers, has taken the limelight in recent years as air and water pollution have become more prevalent.

4-H members, through their conservation projects, study soil and water conservation, wildlife preservation, reforestation and anti-pollution.

4-H'ers are concerned with protecting towns and cities from air and water pollution, blight and deterioration. They want to enjoy fishing and swimming in recreational areas where they can catch prize fish instead of an old boot; dive into a clean lake instead of one contaminated with rubbish or harmful bacteria.

4-H'ers work to prevent soil erosion, water contamination, forest fires, drought and damage to crops and livestock. They learn about soil testing, irrigation, land management, weed and insect control through their 4-H project.

All 4-H boys and girls want to enjoy the beauty of their own home grounds, parks, forests and countryside. The youths highlight conservation thru club activities, community action programs and individual projects.

Will County 4-H'ers interested in conservation can select projects ranging from Forestry to Soil & Water Conservation, from Home Grounds Improvement to Wildlife Conservation.

4-H'ers have several opportunities for increasing their educational experiences by attending the District 4-H Camp, Forestry Camp or Conservation Camp. Also, a local Soil Appreciation School is held for Will County 4-H'ers each year.

4-H conservation members are guided and assisted in their projects by adult leaders, county Extension advisers and other qualified persons. Parents often team up with their offspring in tackling large, long-range projects.

One who would like to learn more about conservation, may contact George J. Young, Assistant Extension Adviser, Agriculture, 100 Manhattan Road, Joliet, Illinois 60433. Telephone AC 815-727-1173.

Board Assures Water Service At Frankfort

The water supply situation at Frankfort is an emergency and to remedy it will cost the village $10,985.

The remedy is the installation of approximately 1,500 feet of 10-inch pipe, connecting the new well in Community Park with the water storage tank at the village hall. The original well at the village hall is reported exhausted.

The board had a choice of drilling a new well at the hall site and take a chance on what kind of a well it might be or making use of the new and proven well. It has elected to connect the new well and tank and at the board meeting Monday night a change order was approved that adds the new main extension program to the contract let to Hulett Construction Co. a couple of weeks ago.

The price, previously mentioned, is $10,985. The original contract was for $16,335.25. The addition to the contract includes installation of two fire hydrants and necessary valves as well as the 10-inch pipe.

Village Engineer Robert Hamilton and an associate, John Djerf, told the village there would not be a lot of difference in cost between drilling and equipping a well and connecting the park well and the storage tank. The tank is necessary to provide pressure for the water system.

The extension will go along Nebraska St. to Locust, north on Locust to Joliet, and from Joliet St. to Maple, where it will be joined to an 8-inch main. Hooking the new well with the storage tank will be faster than drilling, it was said. It was expected that the work would begin this week.

The Original contract would extend a 10-inch main from the well along Nebraska St. to and under U.S. 45 to provide a future tap on when water service is extended west of the highway. A big main also would be extended from the No. 2 well east to Center Rd.

There are 4-inch mains that could be used to bring water from the new well to the storage tank but they are described as too small and the necessary reduction in pressure to accommodate the small mains could be damaging to the pumping equipment, the engineers pointed out.

The village will have to wring the money out of available funds. However, it was pointed out, it has to be done as an emergency exists. With the No. 1 well conking out it is necessary to spend money to hook the tank to the new well if the people are to have water service.

Thruout the coming year, it was stated, the regular meetings of the Frankfort village board will fall on the first and third Monday of each month.

At the request of Trustee Howard Osmus the village attorney, August Santoro, was instructed to draw up an ordinance banning parking during church hours, 9 a.m. to noon, on the north side of LaPorte Rd. from Center to Ash St. and on the west side of Ash St. south to its end. The ordinance will be enacted at the next council meeting, it was said.

Osmus explained that cars are parked on both sides of the streets mentioned, diagonally on one side and parallel on the other and there just isn't enough street. St. Peter's Church has opened a new parking lot with the entrance off Center Rd.

TB Association Plans County X-Ray Program

Donald Imig, president of the Will County Tuberculosis Association announced at the quarterly meeting of the board of directors plans for a county wide x-ray screening program. It will begin April 8, and operate for six weeks in industry and the community.

Imig added that a planning committee will be appointed and industries with whom the Association has worked previously will be contacted personally to meet with them in planning for their program.

It was pointed out that early tuberculosis has no warning symptoms and x-rays are helpful in preliminary screening for undetected tuberculosis. It is hoped many persons will participate in this program as routine x-rays are also important in finding other respiratory problems and illnesses.

Concluding the announcement Imig stated that this program, as are all the programs of the Association, will be financed entirely thru the annual Christmas Seal program, and that the Association still needs $11,197.77 to meet its program goal for 1969. He hopes that all citizens will answer their Christmas Seal Letter today!

JJC Will Add Nursing To 1969 Curriculum

Next September Joliet Junior College District 525 will accept its first class of student nurses, a move expected to help fill the community's shortage of nurses and also to provide an opportunity for high school graduates to enter nurses training while continuing to live at home.

The biggest school of nursing in Joliet right now is at Silver Cross Hospital. Students who attend Silver Cross take part of their courses at the hospital and the rest on the Joliet Junior College campus. More than 50 students take courses not at JJC in psychology, anatomy, and physiology as part of their nurses training. However after the class of nurses that this fall began their training at Silver Cross graduates in 1970, Silver Cross School of Nursing will close.

Instead, beginning in the fall of 1969 all the courses of nursing will be taught at JJC. Mrs. Helen M. Tea will be the director of this department of nursing education. One of the many working with Mrs. Tea will be Mr. Joseph Borgen, the dean of vocational courses at JJC. Mrs. Tea graduated from Silver Cross fourteen years ago and is now the supervisor of the school there. Mrs. Tea says that she hopes that most of the instructors at Silver Cross will join the staff at the College, but this will be entirely up to them.

A graduate of the JJC nursing program will receive an associate degree and then may take the two-day state examination to qualify as a Registered Nurse (RN). The nurse may then transfer to a university for a BS or MS in nursing, required of instructors and some supervisors.

Mrs. Tea hopes to transfer the strongest qualities of the Silver Cross program to JJC and at the same time strengthen the general education background of nurses in the program. The program will not, as some fear, lack in bedside training, she said. The student nurse will have clinical practice at both Silver Cross and St. Joseph's hospitals. Their training, she said, "will continue to contain sufficient bedside practice to assure the graduate of being prepared to assume the duties of the first level positions in bedside nursing."

To combine college classroom and clinical work in the nursing program is a natural trend, Mrs. Tea noted. With an increasing national shortage of nurses, California and New York pioneered this movement to reduce the traditional three and four year nursing programs to two years.

To All Members:
Dec. 31, 1968 will mark the closing of another term, as President of Mokena's Chamber of Commerce, for me.

Although, I have not accomplished as much as I wish, the many projects that have reached fruition are a testament to the dedication of a few unselfish, civic-minded members.

It is my hope, that this number will grow, in order that our new President will have the maximum amount of co-operation necessary to achieve the goals that lie ahead.

I, for one, will submit my services as a Chamber member should. It is hoped that you will do your part, in making 1969 a banner year for the Mokena area.

Thank you for the privilege of serving.

Respectfully,
Will Tuttle

Contest Ends Tonight For Street Lighting

Mrs. Anita Gunn
Telephone - 532-3897

The judges will be driving through Tinley Gardens tonight between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m., for the streetlighting contest. Be sure to have all your Christmas lights on. At night these houses look so decorative and warm.

The children that are planning on going Christmas Caroling tomorrow night please meet at Shirley Zeitz house at 6:00 p.m. with your flashlights. We all want to hear your voices loud and clear. There is still a shortage of adult help for these children. Please help to make this a huge success besides a lot of fun. Parents will be able to leave the younger children at Catherine Otts while they are out.

Tomorrow starts Christmas vacation for our school children. There will be many little kids out on the icy streets so please drive slow to help assure us from losing any of our most precious jewels.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very Merry Christmas for you and yours.

Shirley Zeitz of 183rd street has been appointed chairman of the sunshine committee. If you know of anyone who is ill please contact her at 532-9253. Shirley can't possibly keep track of everyone who gets ill without our help. This is a big job so please help her to do it well.

We are all very sorry to hear of Mr. John Bartons confinement to The St. Francis Hospital in Blue Island. Get Well cards often look to be a very small and simple gesture, but this is very wrong. Cards do so much to your ego just to know that someone cares enough.

Thank You so very much for your kind donations for the Christmas Food Basket Program. This basket will be given to a needy family to help their holiday be a happy one. The receiver of this basket has been chosen by someone outside of our area and shall remain confidential.

The group plans to meet on the first and third Wednesdays of each month, in the Wells home.

The Bobzin - Swinford Post of the American Legion will hold its annual New Year's Eve dance at the Veterans Memorial Hall.

Tickets will be $10 a couple and also cover a supper at midnight. The orchestra of Otto Scheer, of Westmont, will provide the music. This group has played at several of these Legion parties to welcome the new year.

Two bridal showers were given last week for Miss Dana Davis. The first was given by Miss Milda Schroeder, of Frankfort, who is to be the maid of honor. On her arrival Miss Davis presented with a corsage of red and white carnations with a center of a small bride and groom. The second was a surprise shower given by Miss Shiela Rose, of Olympia Fields. There were games and refreshments and Miss Davis received lovely gifts at both parties.

Miss Davis is to become the bride of Roy E. Hoover Jr., of Mokena, on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 28 at 2 o'clock, in St. Peter's Church. The Rev. LaVern Smith will officiate.

Invitations have been issued but all friends and relatives are invited to the wedding and reception. The reception will be held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Gift From Ford Co.

A Ford tractor power train, valued at more than $3,800, has been given to the agriculture department of Lincoln-Way School by Ford Motor Companies' U.S. Tractor and Implement Operations.

The donation, arranged by Joliet Ford Tractor, a division of Commercial Truck and Body, is part of a continuing Ford program to support the agricultural community.

Donated under the companies corporate contribution program, the power train consists of a 3-cylinder 201-CID gasoline engine, eight-speed manual shift transmission, and rear axles. Power trains are given to qualifying high schools, colleges, universities and technical schools.

Presentation of the train at Lincoln-Way was made by R.F. Girard, zone manager of the central district, to Supt. A. Hunter Chapman and Eugene Wagner, agriculture department chairman.

The power train will be used for instruction in the agricultural power and machinery classes and related Adult Education classes.

A total of 103 Ford tractor engines -- worth more than $175,000 -- were donated to schools in 1967. Last year's donation increased total Ford tractor engine donations since 1961 to 330 with a total worth of more than $475,000.

Christmas Gift From Treasurer

Will County taxpayers have a Christmas present and it comes from County Treasurer Clarence Lipman (R). W.F. (Wally) Schuetz, assistant treasurer, who also serves as investment administrator for the office, reports to his chief that earnings on current tax monies from Dec. 1, 1967 to Nov. 30, this year have brought the country $70,-923.12.

Interest on protest tax monies on deposit has brought in an additional $80,-373.32 to the county so the total for the year comes to $151,296.44. Motor Fuel Tax Funds of the county which have been invested also are bringing in earnings.

Lipman pointed out that this is another of his campaign promises that has been kept. He had said he would keep county funds in the bank of Will County so that as much interest as possible could be earned on the money.

He noted that one of the innovations he made was the investing of monies from current collections.

"Any large sums which previously were allowed to remain in checking accounts are being invested, even for short term," Lipman said, and ended on a humorous note, "let us call that $151,-296.44, earned this year my Christmas or Chanukah, present to the people of Will County."

Says Sludge Grows More Crops & Weeds

Fifty conservation leaders were in attendance at the annual meeting sponsored by the Will-South Cook Soil and Water Conservation District on Dec. 10 in the Farm Bureau Building in Joliet.

The affair opened with a turkey dinner at noon. William Stelter of Tinley Park, chairman, presided. The speaker was Louis Judson, researcher, of the University of Illinois Agronomy Research Center at Elwood. His topic was "Use of Sludge on Agricultural Land".

Mr. Judson spoke on the project which was started at the center last June to determine the value of sludge for agricultural purposes. Chicago industries are hard pressed to find a means for waste disposal. The University of Illinois, assisted by grants from the federal government and the Chicago

Metropolitan Sanitary District, hopes to find a favorable solution for all concerned in this project.

Mr. Judson said that the project at Elwood is set up on 44, 10' x 22' plots, of three soils: Plainfield sand, Elliott silt loam and Blount silt loam. The side movement of water is stopped with polyethylene. Water collected from surface troughs and from sub-surface tiles is measured and tested periodically. Plots are set up for surface irrigation.

The speaker said that the object of the project is to provide information on disease problems, odors, flies, and water pollution. The fertility value will be determined. Sterilizing soil with toxic material and run-off into streams will also be studied.
